2500 CAVALCADE TO KOOTENAY.....

Breakfast Fit For A King

A feast fit for a king was the order of the morning for the Drayton Valley Chamber of Commerce as they put on the community breakfast for all the chambers. Their stacks of pancakes, 250 lb. of syrup and gallons of coffee were quickly diminished by the crowd of more than 1000 people who they fed. They gave out more than two cups of coffee during the few hours of their supplies were completely gone. No one however was turned back and the Drayton Chamber deserves a great deal of credit for the way that they fed and controlled all the people who enjoyed the breakfast.

Following the breakfast the sports events started and this delighted all the youngsters present as it was one of the things they could really take part in. There were free races, balloon breaking contests and many other events for their pleasure. For those older folks the Sylvan Lake Chamber, who were in charge of the events, had horseback riding contests, women's roller ple throwing contest and over forty ladies races. All the winners in both and many of the performers were called back for encores.

Among the better entertainers was a thirteen year old girl from Drayton Valley, Jean Simons and a 17 year old girl from Edmonton, Jo Ann Bro-

are. Both of these girls sang several encores and were able to get the crowd to join in with them on many of the no-

Roddy's own Melody Ramblers with the addition of several members were the real hit of the show as they kept things moving at a lively pace.

Whirlwinds were also on hand to give a demonstration of federal square dancing with their caller Mel Ruhl. Dancing with the group were Mel and Mrs. Bert Ruhl, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cony, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Edgerton and Mrs. Mel Ruhl with Andy Smith. The dancers proved to be very popular with some of the city folk who have the opportunity to see or take part in square dancing.

Sunday night Mrs. H. Gillis brought in the winning entry in the fish derby and this was displayed to the crowd. A five and one half pound bull trout caught in the waters of the upper Sask. was the first big fish Mrs. Gillis had ever caught and it was large enough to win the fish derby for her.

To close out the evening the National Flirt Boats presented one more show and the crowd dispersed to continue the fun and gaily around their own camp fires.

Saskatchewan River with the fish line in the vicinity if the riverbed park.

It is hoped that a good number of the fish will enter the race registration is now open and application forms may be obtained at the Recreation Office one time Monday through Friday between 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. In order to make the matter clear to all concerned we are here publishing a brief resume of the rules and regulations governing the construction of the raft and the actual race itself.

F. FINISH: The finish line will be the downstream side of the bridge crossing the North Saskatchewan River on
